

Monica Middlebrooks is the Deputy Commissioner for Juvenile Justice for the Tennessee Department of Children Services. As Deputy Commissioner, Ms. Middlebrooks oversees three secure care youth development centers, interstate compact for non-custodial youth, and community intervention and prevention grants. Prior to joining the DCS team, Ms. Middlebrooks was the CIT Manager for the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office. She managed the specialized crisis intervention training designed to teach law enforcement how to respond to those having a mental health crisis. Ms. Middlebrooks has been serving youth and families for over 20 years. Her resume includes residential treatment, non-custodial prevention services (Community Services Agency), juvenile probation and Rule 31 Mediation. Ms. Middlebrooks received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Human Services from the University of Tennessee At Knoxville and her Master of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. She is a 2013 Graduate of the Tennessee Government Executive Institute and serves as President of her class. Ms. Middlebrooks is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. She has served on numerous boards such as EPB Credit Union, Moccasin Bend Mental Health Institute, and Hospice of Chattanooga.